Teachers/Ministers/Lawyers/Doctors

the WEBCOR Tape Recorder will save you hours of time

Teachers use the amazing Webcor Tape Recorder to help them record lectures, papers and readings. The speech and music teachers let their students practice on the Webcor Tape Recorder. The teacher in charge of school social affairs records music for dances and school parties. The principal records announcements for the PA system. Almost every teacher can find a practical, time-saving use for the Webcor Tape Recorder.

Ministers all over the country are using the Webcor Tape Recorder to improve the effectiveness of their sermons. They not only practice their sermon on the tape recorder, but record it during delivery for further study. The Webcor Tape Recorder has also been helpful in recording music for church socials, choir practice and religious plays.

Lawyers have found the tape recorder a time-saver because now they can record interviews with clients for diligent study and transcribing. They can play it back repeatedly to learn the facts, yet when the case is over, the tape can be erased for use over and over again.

Doctors find the Webcor Tape Recorder helpful in diagnosing cases. When further study is required on a case, the interviews can be recorded and played back any number of times, or transcribed as a firm record of the details. The Webcor increases the Doctor's efficiency, saves him time and eliminates the need for taking notes.
